

SentriLock Donates to American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund

Reaches Out to Help Those Facing Hardship in Tennessee and Other Southern States

Cincinnati, Ohio (PRWEB) May 6, 2010 -- SentriLock, the number-one rated provider of electronic lockbox systems to the residential real estate industry, has donated to the American Red Cross to support aid going to those affected by the recent floods in the Southern United States. With the death toll recently reported at twenty-nine and possibly rising, immediate help is needed to get the flooded areas back into livable condition.

The National Weather Service says Nashville had more than thirteen inches of rain in two days, which doubles its previous record. Many area homes and buildings have been destroyed and landmarks such as the Grand Ole Opry and the Country Music Hall of Fame are sadly at risk. Damages are estimated to be in the tens of millions of dollars.

The American Red Cross has already commenced providing services such as shelter and other assistance to evacuees and residents affected by the flooding. To help in this effort, customers of participating wireless carriers can text "REDCROSS" to 90999 to make a $10 donation to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund.

Chris Ralstin, Senior Manager, Customer Relations at SentriLock, said, "Our concern for our customers extends beyond our business connections. We are greatly saddened by this event and are providing immediate assistance to help victims make it through this rough time. Our hearts go out to not only our customers in these areas, but to all who have been affected."
